

Privacy Policy

It is the aim of Dream Team Accounting, and the employees is that all persons whose personal data is processed by Dream Team Accounting shall always be confident that their privacy is respected, and that due care is taken regarding his or her personal data.

1 General

- 1.1 Dream Team Accounting are the data controllers for the processing carried out by us or on our behalf. This means that we determine the purpose of and means for the processing of your personal data, i.e. why and how we process the data.
- 1.2 Dream Team Accounting will comply with all data protection laws incorporated into UK law that control the collection and use of data relating to individuals ("personal data") as well as with this privacy policy. The purpose of this privacy policy is to set out the principles governing the use of personal data you give to us, or we obtain about you.
- 1.3 This privacy policy will be revised regularly, and any subsequent changes will be published on our website in this area. This version of the privacy policy was last reviewed during November 2019.

2 Data we may collect from you

- 2.1 Personal data, including data such as names and addresses which you provide to Dream Team Accounting, may be processed manually as well as by computers.

2.2 Visitors to our website

- 2.2.1 An IP address is a unique number which makes it possible to identify a user's connection to the Internet and it is automatically provided by your web browser each time you view a website. Any visit to Dream Team Accounting website may lead to registration of the IP address used for such access. We also use IP addresses to measure the use of Dream Team Accounting' webpages. Such measurement may include:
  - 2.2.2 Monitoring/collecting information as to how you use the site to help Dream Team Accounting to improve the site
  - 2.2.3 to personalise your experience by tailoring the content you see
  - 2.2.4 to optimise your user experience
  - 2.2.5 to determine frequency of use
  - 2.2.6 to perform statistical analysis of data collected.

2.3 Use of Cookies

- 2.3.1 This site may use "cookies," which are small data files stored on your computer or another computer for use with your web browser software. Cookies are used on this site to provide the user with access to functions available on the site such as registering for updates, requesting information and submitting enquiries. If you would like information about cookies and on how to restrict or block cookies, please visit www.allaboutcookies.org
- 2.3.2 By accepting the Terms of Use as well as by accessing and using the website, you consent to the use of the above stated cookies. You may also consent to our use of cookies by the settings you have made in your web browser. If you do not wish to accept our use of cookies, you must then exit this website or disable the function for cookies in your web browser software. Please note that without cookies, the functionality of the site may be impaired.

2.4 Other stakeholders

2.4.1 Other stakeholders include job applicants, former employees, and third parties, as well as individuals contacting Dream Team Accounting via social media.

2.4.2 Any personal data collected from other stakeholders will be processed in line with this policy, and the purpose it was originally collected for, and held securely. Please see section 3. Examples of personal data held for other stakeholders are:

- Name
- Contact details
